TERMINATION OF SCHOOL RECESS

Clerk of School Board Busy Issuing Permits Today

LINE OF APPLICANTS.

Next Week Many Youngsters, With Shining Morning Faces, Will be Creeping to School.

The following stereotyped queries were put to parents and guardians by H. D. Kirk, clerk of the School Board in Armory Hall today.

Are your children over 7 and under 21 years of age? Have they been vaccinated in the past seven years? Have you paid your capitation tax for this year?

Mr. Kirk and his assistants were at Armory Hall between the hours of 9 and 2 today issuing the necessary permits for children to enter the schools. They will also issue permits to white children tomorrow and Wednesday, and to the colored children who wish to attend school on Thursday.

All teachers who have been elected for the next year will be in their respective rooms each day this week, and assign the different studies to be taken up by their pupils. On next Monday the class will organize and the boys and girls of this city will resume their studies after their annual summer vacation.

The clerk and his assistants were kept busy all this morning, the applicants standing in lines and waiting their turns. Up to noon 685 permits white children had been issued—367 to boys and 318 to girls. On the corresponding day last year 635 permits were issued—324 to boys and 311 to girls.

The principals of Lee and Washington schools were busy registering the children and scholars for the coming school year.

Examination of the scholars will begin next Friday and continue for several days until all children and pupils have been graded and assigned to their studies.

Unless some one comes to the rescue with an offer of quarters there will be no kindergarten school held this year. The room occupied last year by the kindergarten situated on the first floor of Lee School for girls is needed by the school board this year on account of lack of room in the school building required for school children in the lower and middle grades which makes it imperative that every available room in the school building be devoted to the use of regular grades.

The furniture and equipment used last year by the kindergarten is being stored and by tomorrow the last vestage of the former institution will have vanished from its former abode.

GETS DIVORCE

Virginia Woman Aided Husband in African Expedition.

Reno, Nev., Sept. 1.—In an unopposed suit for divorce Mrs. Mary Blair Beebe won a decree against her husband, Charles William Beebe, curator of birds at the New York Zoological Gardens in Bronx Park. Mrs. Beebe charged extreme cruelty. Mr. Beebe merely submitted through his attorney, a formal denial of the charges. They were married on Aug. 6, 1902, at Coles Ferry, Va., and have no children.

Mr. Beebe is 36 years old, and was graduated from Columbia University with the class of '98.

Mrs. Beebe, who was formerly Mary Blair Rice, of Virginia, won considerable distinction by the assistance she gave her husband during their many expeditions in search of birds in Africa. Foremost in the praise of her was Dr. Beebe himself, who asserted, when they returned from their great expedition of 17 months in the East in May, 1911' that if it had not been for his wife the trip would not have been successful.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

All kissing performances of record was eclipsed at Salem, O., Thursday night when a pretty girl member of a prominent family was kissed 1,666 2-3 times—and not by one man, either. At the same time, five other girls, equally pretty and prominent, received the same number of kisses on an average. The girls disposed of one thousand kisses at $1 each to aid the endowment of Salem Hospital, which has just been completed. The osculatory bombardment lasted two hours and at times there was a line of men, young and old, a block long, waiting to fire salutes. Some elderly gentlemen with bald heads would invest $6 when they reached the head of the line, and then sneak around and get in line again. Several of these gentlemen were marched home by their wives.

The fierce rioting in connection with the tramway strike in Dublin, Ireland, was renewed Sunday. Hundreds of persons, including thirty constables, were injured. On Saturday 60 or more persons were injured. All the hospitals are so crowded that many serious cases had to be sent to their homes for treatment. The strike committee, in the interest for peace, had rescinded early in the morning the proposed mass meeting in O'Connell street, and had substituted a parade from Beresford Place to Croyden Park, at Fairview, a suburb on the north side of the city. The authorities meanwhile had prohibited the mass meeting.

A keen sense of smell and remarkable courage on the part of 18-year-old Pauline Royner, of New York, probably saved scores of lives in the tenement at that address, occupied by 26 families, early yesterday. It was through her efforts that dynamite enough to demolish the block was discovered after the attached fuse had burned to within half an inch of the explosive. She picked it up, tore off the paper, and found two sticks of dynamite attached to a burning fuse. Then, with the fuse spluttering in her hands, she carried it down one flight and dumped it into a pail of water.

Samuel Jamison, 57 years old, and Jane Jamison, 59 years old, spinster, sister of the man, on Saturday entered a suicide pact because they thought they were about to become impoverished, having to reduce their family retinue from six to three servants. The woman is dead and her brother is in a serious condition at the Bryn Mawr Hospital, Pa. The sister leaves a large fortune and the brother has a larger one.

James Miller and his 10-year-old son were instantly killed yesterday when an express train struck a wagon in which they were crossing the West Jersey and Seashore Electric Railway near Key City. They were on their way to church.

Mrs. Ellen Deeming Grangerow, of Oregon City Ore., a wealthy Umatilla Indian, has obtained a divorce from her ninth husband, Grant Nicholas Grangerow, and voluntarily settled upon him as "alimony," $2,000. Mrs. Grangerow was successful after four attempts. She charged wilful desertion.

Two policemen were startled at the Delancy Street Station Philadalphia, Pa., yesterday morning, when they heard two wild piercing shrieks of "Murder, murder," disturbing the stillness of the early morning. The officers rushed across to 510 South Front street and there found Joseph Kaluk, aged 24 years, with his abdomen slit and two men just about to leap over the fence. Standing on a chair near the man believed to be dying was an old green parrot, with a wing broken, it is thought in the murderous affray. The police pursued and caught Alexandre Kundre and Joseph Betinsky in a blind alley in the rear of the house and they were brought to where Kaluk lay unconscious. The parrot's head was uncovered and the minute she saw the two men the bird again broke into shrill cries of "Murder, murder," and on the evidence of the bird alone, they were sent to prison to await the result of the man's injuries.

Feeling a sharp pain in his hand, as he was almost blinded by a flash of lightning, W. Trudell, a guest at the Pullman Hotel, Pullman, Mich., discovered the bolt had melted a gold ring on his finger to a shapeless mass. Except for a slight burn he was unhurt.

NO CHANGES IN CURRENCY BILL

Mr. Glass Says Chicago Bankers Will Have No Influence.

CONGRESS IS FIRM.

Legislation to be Enacted in Interests of All the People—No Dictation Permitted.

Lynchburg, Va., Sept. 1—Congressman Glass, chairman of the banking and currency committee of the House, who spent Sunday at his home here, issued a statement in regard to the resolutions recently adopted by the bankers of Chicago:

"I have carefuly read the resolutions which a conference of bankers adopted at Chicago last week, asking certain alterations in the currency bill, now under consideration by Congress; and while I am not prepared to say whether or not these resolutions represent the concensus of banking opinion throughout the county, I do know quite definitely that hundreds of bankers have endorsed the administration currency bill without qualification. The letter files of the Banking and Currency Committee completely justify this assertion. Indeed, until some of the big banks of the reserve and central reserve cities inaugurated a systematic campaign against the bill among their country correspondents, approval of the measure was quite general.

"Assuming, however, that the bankers' conference at Chicago did reflect the banking opinion of the country, I do not think Congress will be turned aside from its purpose to enact currency legislation in the interest of all the people, rather than legislation dictated by the banking interests. Speaking for the Democratic members of the House Banking and Currency Committee, who have so far firmly resisted populistic appeals to the prejudice fomented against bankers, we are just as firm in our purpose not to yield to unreasonable demands on the part of bankers. Gracious knows, that we have exhibited little enough respect for demagogues in our own party, who would enact unsound legislation along what they conjectured to be popular lines; but it may be well understood that we do not intend to be driven into the other extreme, which would require us to enact legislation for the peculiar advantage of the big banks, with their vast stock exchange connections."

KNOWS BETTER NOW.

Curiosity Led Man to Set Sack Containing Dynamite Afire.

Harrisonburg, Va., Sept. 1.—Just to see what would happen, Robt. Jewell, of Strausburg, set fire to an old sack, on the inside of which was a stick of dynamite. For several days the family physician has been busy picking splinters of dynamite out of Robert's face and legs. The danger of blood poisoning is past and Robert will recover. He says he still feels the jar.

Hackensack—Miss Maizie Wilcox, station agent of the Susquehannah, at Dundee Lake, robbed of $150 while in her office, accuses a special deputy.

Newport, R. I.—Louis Bruguiere received a mail package containing his sapphire and diamond shirt studs and cuff links stolen last Sunday night from a suit case in his automobile. The jewels were valued at $4,000.

Ackley, Ia.—Ten thousand visitors came to Ackley today to join in the annual celebration of "sauerkraut day." This is the banner sauerkraut making section of the entire country, and the annual festival is held to attract public attention to the product.

Mrs. S. A. Haslett with her daughter, Miss Annah, and her sons, Joseph and Talbert, have gone to West-

INTERESTING ADDRESSES.

Discourses on Synoptic Gospels in St. Paul's Church.

The past three Sundays St. Paul's congregation have been enjoying a series of most interesting talks or lectures rather than sermons by the Rev. Paca Kennedy, one of our Seminary professors.

The gospels according to St. Mark, St. Matthew, and St. Luke, called the synoptic gospels, was the subject of the first address and was based upon the idea of the gospels being written as historians would write and not as works of inspiration. (Inspiration being defined very differently by different individuals.) St. Mark puts forth the sayings of Jesus as preached by St. Peter. St. Luke is filled with incidents in the life of Jesus. Portions of St. Matthew and St. Mark found in St. Luke that are not comomn to the two and a great deal in both that does not appear in St. Luke, show that St. Luke compiled that which apealed to him most as a historian.

The second of Rev. Kennedy's series was the gospel of St. John, written at the end of the first century, some seventy years later than the preceding gospels. Whether written by John, the apostle, or John, the intimate friend of Jesus, the author's intention was to produce conviction in the minds of his readers. His work throughout is filled with Christian evidences. St. John's gospel represents faith and the life that flows

The last lecture was the Thirteen Epistles or Letters, as they should be called of St. Paul. The distinction of epistle from letter being that an epistle is a work intended to be handed down to posterity while a letter is meant for those to whom it is written. Rev. Kennedy put before the congregation carefully and authentically culled data concerning St. Paul's letters and also spoke of the number that must have been lost. His description of St. Paul found in a romance of the third century and given credence by some students as possibly a correct description of him read: "A man of moderate stature with crooked legs curly hair, blue eyes, long nose, and high brow, with sometimes the look of a man but oftimes the look of an angel."

Those fortunate enough to have listened to any or all three addresses of Rev. Kennedy will certainly read their New Testament with more interest enlightenment and renewed desire than ever before.

ELIGIBLE FOR THE ROADS.

City Should Not Feed And Clothe Drunks And Improvidents.

It is suggested that a certain small percentage of Alexandria's population compel the city to take care of them for several months of each year. They spend some time in the work house or jail, and generally manage to get in one or the other of these institutions when they need shoes or other articles which are furnished at the expense of the city.

It is known that in some cases representives of this class dispose of their clothing and when they are placed in the jail or workhouse their feet are often on the ground.

The work obtained from jail birds or inmates of the workhouse is meagre. If they are placed in the fields they allow the hoes to drop of their own weight and often literally fail to earn their salt.

It has been suggested that such human derelicts, when able-bodied, could be used to more profit upon the public roads, and should delinquents realize that they run the risk of being given a ninety-days' sentence, they would doubtless be more careful to keep out of the meshes of the law.

In looking over our state exchanges we notice that in some Virginia cities vagrants are occasionally sent on the roads for six months.

Hailstones Big as Hickory Nuts.

Harrisonburg, Va., Sept. 1.—Hailstone as big as hickory nuts fell Friday night in Northern Shenandoah. People and animals scurried to shelter. One horse scampered onto the porch of the hotel and another tried to rush into Sitckley's drug store. Crops were badly damaged and roofs were blown from several large factories and mills.

Lynn, Mass.—Seven hundred of the nine hundred employes of the A. W. Creighton Shoe factory quit work in sympathy with 25 ironers.

HUERTA MAY FORCE THE PRESIDENT

Mexican Attitude Causing Restlessness in United States.

TIDINGS FROM LIND.

Present Conditions Said to be Strengthening Defiant Attitude of The Republic.

Washington, Sept. 1.—Unless Huerta is bluffing he is fast driving the United States to assume an aggressive stand in the Mexican situation.

This is the impression in official circles here today. Every hour of delay on the part of the Mexican government in offering to this country satisfactory basis for the resumption of negotiations is serving to stir the people of the United States to restlessness. It is strengthening the defiant attitude of the Mexican people.

As far as negotiations go the situation is unchanged from what it was two weeks ago. As far as sentiment in Mexico goes, the situation is as grave if not graver than before.

The government in Mexico on the other hand, is far from passing, according to press advices. Troops are being raised, preparations are being made for the patriotic demonstration and parade in Mexico City September 16, and the government is taking every advantage from the rising spirit of patriotism occasioned by the continued refusal of Huerta to knuckle down to the demands of the United States.

It may all be a bluff just as the veiled threat that Lind would not be allowed to land in Mexico, and would be "persona non grata," turning out to be a bluff. Bluff, according to posted officials in Washington, is an important element in Latin-American diplomacy. It is because of this that officials here are hoping that Huerta will finally "come to time."

BAFFLES DETECTIVES.

Mystery in Assassination of Operator Harrison.

Charlottesville, Va., Sept. 1.—W. Jackson, suspected of the murder, at Scottsville last Sunday, of Richard W. Harrison, the popular young telegraph operator and station agent, is to have a preliminary hearing before Mayor Beale this week. The evidence, as far as the public is informed, is meagre and wholly circumstantial, and it may be that he is under arrest as a blind, behind which the detectives can work out the mystery.

There is plenty of mystery in the case. The murder occurred in the early hours of the morning following pay day, from which the motive was inferred. But the motive is by no means certain, because if robbery was intended it would have been committed before the wage fund had been paid out of the station safe. That Harrison was murdered for the contents of his own pay envelope is, of course, conceivable, and the possibility that the robber was scared off by the coming of the train whose crew found Harrison on floor dead, must be admitted, but there is no proof known unless the detectives have something up their sleeves.

At least six men are believed to have been at work near the scene. The facts thus far uncovered reveal a young hobo who claims to be from Oklahoma and that his name is Jackson. He has been in the Scottsville section of the county for six months, with no particular record to distinguish him from the weary, dusty men of his guild, except that he did occasionally work for short periods and that the wanderlust was not strong enough to keep him in a state of migration. A young girl he met in Lynchburg, and who allowed him to write her and occasionally visit her at her home near Warren, six miles west of Scottsville, may have been the motive fixing him in that locality.

Miss Evelyn M. Shirley, of Chicago, is spending the week with W. S. Nicklin, her cousin.

Oyster season now open at Rammel Cafe.

NIMRODS ARRESTED.

Greeks From Washington Charged With Violating Game Laws.

Game Warden A. J. Payne made a descent this morning upon some hunters from the land of Homer. He took four in custody. After having relieved them of their accoutrements, he and George Roast conducted them to the station house in this city. The accused will be taken before a Fairfax county magistrate. They are charged with gunning without permission, having it is alleged, killed partridges yesterday, and with shooting mocking birds, blue birds and rice birds.

FINED FIFTY DOLLARS.

Jerry Miller, colored, was brought before the Police Court this morning to answer the charge of carrying a pistol. Miller appeared in the northeastern section of the city last Saturday night for the purpose of having a good time. After visiting a saloon he entered a resort conducted by a colored woman and was later taken in custody by the police when it was learned he was carrying a pistol. The officers produced the weapon found upon the prisoner. The latter stated in his defense that a negro turned the pistol over to him and that he was the temporary custodian.

He was assessed fifty dollars, and should he fail to pay his fine will serve ninety days on the roads.

FUNERAL OF DR. CATTS.

The funeral of the late Dr. Samuel R. Catts, who died Thursday from tuberculosis contracted while in the service of the government, took place yesterday afternoon from the residence of his father, Rozier D. Catts, 1622 Duke street. The services were conducted by the Rev. Dr. J. W. Duffey, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church South. The members of Old Dominion Commandery, Knights Templar, in uniform, acted as an escort, and large delegations from Andrew Jackson and Alexandria-Washington Lodge of Masons were in attendance. The pallbearers were Dr. Arthur Snowden, William Lewis Allo, J. E. W. Timberman, John G. Graham, Charles W. Howell, and Henry K. Field. The Masonic ritual at the grave in the Presbyterian Cemetery was read by Dr. C. E. Outcalt, master of Andrew Jackson Lodge.

The contractor is Mr. D. E. Bayliss, of this city.

CELEBRATION OF LABOR DAY

Young and Old Participate in Many Outdoor Pleasures.

GATHERING AT DYKE.

Flotilla of Motorboats on River—Trips to the Sea—Crowded Excursion Boats.

The diversion incident to the celebration of Labor Day are varied. Long before the day god arose in the eastern heavens this morning the report of guns was heard in the swamps of this city, and doubtless roosts were cleared of reedbirds, blackbirds and other speciments of the feathery tribe long before the breakfast hour.

Later motorboats were being stocked for private outing parties and there was more or less stir in most families, members of which were prepring for patronizing public excursions.

The larger percentage of Alexandrians, however, witnessed or participated in the festivities at the Dyke, a short distance south of this city.

The Alexandria Trades Council had prepared an interesting programe for the resort. The fete began at 10 o'clock with a series of athletic events, and will close with a dance in the evening. In the afternoon addresses were delivered by Representative Carter Glass and J. Frederick Birrell, Democratic nominee for the house of delegates from Alexandria city and county.

WANT FREE TUITION

Alexandria County Children Desire Admission to Washington Schools.

Alexandria county school authorities have appointed a committee consisting of Trustees Trimyer, Handy and Upman to urge upon Congress the passage of a law which will admit children residing in the county to the Washington High schools without charge. It is claimed that one-fourteenth of the aera of the county is exempt from taxation because it is owned by the United States government and that for this reason free tuition should be provided. The resources of the county will not permit high school facilities for its children who are now compelled to secure their higher education in the Washington schools.

The committee will confer immediately with the Virginia senators and congressmen as well as the members of the District committee of the house and senate.

FOOT CRUSHED.

Walker Dove, of Williamsport, Pa., while endeavoring to board a southbound freight train at the Union station yesterday afternoon fell underneath the cars and had his foot badly crushed. After the accident the man hobbled to Spring Park station several hundred feet away. He was later taken to the Alexandria Hospital where Dr. W. M. Smith, amputated a portion of the foot.

ZACHARY RAPS MACKEY

Alleges Commonwealth's Attorney Introduced Politics in Schools

Declaring that since Commonwealth's Attorney Crandal Mackey's announcement that he would not be a candidate for re-election, that official has adopted a rule or ruin policy toward the politics of the county, and charging Mackey with being the man who put politics in the public schools, George W. Zachary, retiring member of the Jefferson district school board, excoriated him in a farewell speech at a recent meeting of the county school board last week.

Trustee Zachary said that during his nine years on the school board Captain Mackey had tried to "control" him politically, but had failed. The trouble began, he said, early in his career as trustee, when Mackey was a candidate for commonwealth's attorney, and he failed to reinstate a teacher dismissed for inefficiency.

He said that Mackey came to him and told him that there were "three votes in that teacher's home" that they needed, and that they could get if the teacher was given her former place. Mr. Zachary said he stood firm on the dismissal, because he believed it to be for the good of the schools, and that he thereby cast the first die in his own political suicide.

"And because I had the temerity," said the trustee in explaining events immediately preceding the recent school board elections, "to send Walter Varney to vote my proxy for himself against Mr. Mackey as chairman of the county democratic committee this summer, Mr. Mackey decided that I wouldn't do for school trustee any longer. My vote, it happened, wasn't needed to elect Walter Varney, but I had opposed Mackey and that was enough."

Mr. Zachary is Tiler and Custodian of Alexandria-Washington Lodge of Masons.

At this the biggest of all pow wows of this great American Order, there will be present between 1,500 and 2,000 Red Men with their families from all parts of the United States, and her possessions, for in every clime where the Stars and Stripes float may be fond a tribe of the Improved Order of Red Men, the most of whom will at some time during the week's session visit the tomb of Washington and our city.

None but past great sachems are permitted at the secret sessions of this Great Council, and W. S. Nicklin, the only past great sachem from this section of the state, will be in attendance. There will be two sessions, however to which all Red Men as well as their pale face friends are invited, namely, at the opening exercises Monday morning, and the memorial services Tuesday evening, September 9th, at 8 o'clock.

On this occasion it is anticipated that large delegations from Seminole and Osceola Tribes of this city will be present, in fact committees from both tribes are arranging to bring out banner crowds from their respective tribes.

Lone Star Camp, No. 1, American Indian Guards, will also go over in a body on this evening and their band will give a concert in the lobby of the New Willard Hotel and will also furnish music for the memorial exercises. In all probability a special train will carry the Red Men and Guards over.

The very extensives ssortments present pieces for every room of the home, whether the requirement be a single piece, of plain, substantial dsign, or for the complete suits of massive proportion. The great variety of woods and finishes adds diversity that makes selection simply a preference of the many artistic and beautiful effects that are shown.

TOOTH OF MASTODON FOUND.

Part of Backbone Also Unearthed at Lancaster, Va.

Lancaster, Va., Sept. 1.—An archaeological find of great interest was made here Saturday by some men who were digging a well on the premises of George Carter. At a depth of 60-odd feet far below the surface of the earth they found a molar tooth and a section of the backbone of a mastodon.

The tooth,which with the exception of roots is in a state of almost perfect preservation, has a grinding surface of 8 by 3 1-2 inches and must have been from 12 to 15 inches long from the top of the tooth to the end of the roots. The portion of the tooth above the roots is covered with a jet black enamel, which appears to be as perfect as when in the mouth of this primeval monster.

The section of the backbone is more than 6 inches in diameter and is not so well preserved as the tooth, as all the laminae have disappeared. The tooth found is rear one of the lower jaw and has four double conical projections or cusps, with a small rudimentary one at the rear end, all giving unmistakable evidence that it is a molar tooth of an American mastodon, said by geologists to have been the progenitor of the elephant.

These remains were found in a stratum of sand and marl which was once an old sea floor. As no remains of the mastodon have heretofore been found in this region, it is supposed that the dead body of the monster was brought here from higher latitudes of the ice drift of the great glacial epoch and dropped on the bottom of the sea that then covered all this tidewater region. It is supposed that other remains of this mastodon lie imbedded near where the tooth and vertebrae were found, but the great depth at which they were discovered precluded any extended search for them.

CLERKS VOTE TO STRIKE.

Final Effort to Secure Recognition of Union.

Richmond, Sept. 1—J. F. Riley, vice-president of the National Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, Saturday night announced the result of the strike vote on the Chesapeake and Ohio system.

Mr. Riley at 11 o'clock said he had heard from more than 1,500 clerks, the strike being favored by 98 3-10 per cent of the clerks.

Mr. Riley said he would see General Manager Johnson and make a final effort to get recognition of the clerks' union and their fight for better conditions. If that fails the strike will become operative by Monday morning.

The council will elect a clerk, town sergeant, board of health, five wardens, and one school trustee.

Mr. Geo. T. Mankin, the present clerk; Mr. Turner, town sergeant and Mr. Eastman, school trustee, whose terms expire, it is predicted will all be re-elected.

INSULTS WHITE WOMAN.

Negro Given Year in Jail For Affront.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 1—Charged with making insulting advances to Mrs. Florence Pemberton, Andrew J. Smith, a colored man, about 40 years old, was sentenced to a year in jail Friday by Police Justice Crutchfield.

Mrs. Pemberton testified that she recently moved into the upper story of 800 West Broad street, and that she was arranging her furniture Saturday when the negro came up stairs and into her room. He wanted her to take a subscription to a magazine she said. She told him that she did not have time to read magazines, and that he could go. The man then wanted to help her straighten up the room, and she told him emphatically to leave the house. He then told her that he was "out for a good time," and she screamed. This brought Mr. Reiley, from whom she rents the room, but the negro had escaped.

The man came again, she said, at 2 o'clock Wednesday morning and knocked on her door. On Thursday shortly before 4 o'clock he appeared and stood in the street staring at her window. She called a policeman and the man was locked up.

The negro was charged with a similar affront a year ago, and was dismissed, it is said, on the ground that he was mentally defective.

Fire Friday exacted as its toll Hipolito Uriate, aged 32, former Spanish consul to New York, and his aged wife, together with thousands of souvenirs, books and papers, that Uriate had collected during the last fifty years of his life. A match accidentally dropped into a pile of papers, started the blaze in Uriate's apartment, in Central Park, West. He was trapped in the room of his blazing treasures and burned to death. His wife, her clothing afire, jumped into a courtyard, four stories below, and was killed.

GIVEN SIX MONTHS IN JAIL.

Hampton Physician to Pay Dearly for Crime on Wife and Child.

Hampton, Va., Sept. 1.—D. H. B. Treagle, a practicing physician of this city, who attempted to murder his wife and nine-year-old boy at their home on Carey street Wednesday shortly after 9 o'clock, was arraigned before Mayor Thornton F. Jones, and was sent to jail for six months and ten days.

A few days ago Dr. Treagle was up before Mayor Jones on the charge of drunkenness and two or three other charges and had promised to leave the city. Mayor Jones bailed him on his own recognizance in the sum of $100 provided he would leave the town. Therefore the bond was forfeited and he was fined $10 and costs and placed under another bond, and being unable to pay any of this, he was sent to jail for the term stated above.

When the case was called the court room and all outside the room was crowded with spectators, and when the officers brought the doctor into court he tried to speak to his wife but she refused flatly to have anything to say to him. The doctor asked her to talk to him after Mayor Jones had heard the evidence, but when she had told the mayor about the case she and her little boy passed out of the court room, passing by her husband, and said: "No, I don't want to speak to you again."

Mrs. Treagle is packing up her furniture which the doctor did not tear up and will leave shortly for her home in Matthews county, Va.

ALLEGED SUICIDE.

Note Tells of Decision to Starve Rather Than to Ask For Alms.

Norfolk, Sept. 1—Too proud to beg, a man supposed to be R. E. Morse, of Moscow, is lying unconscious in St. Vincent's Hospital as the result of an attempt to commit suicide by starvation. He was found on Atlantic street early Friday night by Patrolman Simpson in an unconscious condition.

A pathetic note found in his pocket told of a long and bitter struggle to find work enough to keep him alive, and the final decision to starve rather than to ask for alms.

"I haven't the courage to blow out my brains," he wrote, "so I have decided to starve. My home is far away, and I have always been a gentleman and I am too proud to ask for charity."

He requested in the note that Miss Ruth Armory, of Phoenix, Ariz., be informed of his death. He said his condition was brought about because he had always been too ready to help other. Morse is about thirty years old.

AMERICANS WILL NOT LEAVE.

Advices from Mexico that a large number of Americans will refuse to leave that country upon the suggestion of President Wilson will likely prove embarrassing to the administration. American citizens are taking the position that they cannot leave despite the dangers they may incur. Hasty departure on their part means the loss of all their property which they have been accumulating for years and return to the United States means, in a great many cases, that they will come back here as paupers.

We do not notice that English, German or French authorities have asked citizens of their country to vacate. Why the distinction in favor of Americans?

WORKINGMAN'S ANNUAL HOLIDAY.

The first Monday in September, long anticipated by the toiling millions, from a meteorological standpoint has been ideal for a holiday, and a large percentage of Alexandrians have entered into its recreations in one way or another. Most of the denizens of workshops hereabouts left the city for the purpose of enjoying a change of scenery, while many joined in the public excursions, and a large number formed private parties for the purpose of picnicking in rural retreats near home.

The steamers running to river resorts have been crowded, and the boats of the Norfolk line carried large complement of passengers Saturday night and last night. A trip to the sea is one of the most enjoyable features of Labor Day.

Labor Day appeals to the great mass of mankind. The ordinary workingmen can ill afford vacations. They are luxuries seemingly not intended for them and they are disposed to keep the wheels of life moving until a cog slips and they are forced to take an intermission, often one from which they never emerge. In the race for wealth, corporations, often, said to be minus souls, are thoughtless concerning those who are amassing riches for them. There are constant issues between employers and employes concerning wages and hours and hence the best of feeling is not always apparent, but conditions might be greatly improved did each show proper deference for the rights of one another. Those who are in positions to do so have had their holidays while the workman has toiled on, mid winter's snow and summer's heat. The first Monday in September is his day and it is hoped all who have availed themselves of this small period of time to enjoy a day away from the busy shop or office will benefit by it to the utmost.

COMPLIMENT TO HAY.

Speaker Clark Asks Virginian to Preside Over House During His Absence From Washington.

Washington, D. C., Sept. —Congressman James Hay has had an unusual compliment conferred upon him by Speaker Clark. The latter called the Virginia Cogressman to Speaker's desk, and informed him that he would be away from Washington Saturday making political speeches in Maine, and he asked Mr. Hay if he had any objection to being appointed Speaker "pro tem." The latter raised no protest, and thereupon Mr. Clark made public announcement of the fact that for Saturday, at least, it would be "Speaker" Hay and not Speaker Clark.

This is probably the second time since Mr. Clark was elected Speaker succeeding Mr. Cannon that he has left Washington during a session of Congress. He felt called upon, however, to go to Maine, and in doing so left the House in the best hands he could find—those of Representative Hay.

Mr. Hay's friends congratulated him upon the fact of his being so signally honored and promised to assist him in every possible way to make his tenue of office—een if for only one day—a success. Mr. Hay also presided over the deliberations of the House today while routine business was being transacted.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Death came instantly to Vincenzo Molinara and his son, James, yesterday when the carriage in which they were driving over a Pennsylvania railroad crossing at McKey City, near Pleasantville, N. J., was struck by a fast electric train. The railroad station prevented the Molinaras from seeing the approaching train.

Lightning, wind and rain caused heavy damage in Southern New England Friday. Several buildings in Worcester, Mass., were struck. Four houses in the same block were hit by four successive bolts, and all the occupants were stunned. Telephone and fire alarm systems were paralyzed, trees were uprooted and streets flooded. Twenty Middlesex county towns were jarred when one of the mills of the American Powder Company, near Acton, Mass., blew up after being struck by lightning. So far as known there were no casualties. At Newport,R.I. spires of two churches and the top of the old shot tower were knocked off by lightning. Esther Perkins, daughter of a suburban postmaster, was knocked unconscious by a bolt while using the telephone. The damage to crops in central Connecticut was great.

Striking cloakmakers Friday stormed the factory of Singer Bros., on the fourth floor of a building in the wholesale district of Philadelphia, attacking two members of the firm who attempted to keep them from entering and choking a young woman stenographer, who was telephoning to the police for assistance. Windows were broken, machinery damaged and furniture strewn about the room when a squad of police arrived. Three men who are alleged to have been members of the attacking party were arrested and held in $1,200 bail each for a further hearing. Three others were so badly injured when the police charged the strikers that they had to be moved to a hospital. The garment workers' strike has been in progress more than a month, several thousand operatives demanding increased wages, better working conditions and recognition of the union.

Fire raged in the hold of the steamship Burgomeister Hackmann at Bush locks, Brooklyn, Friday morning. The fire fighters did their utmost to sink the ship before the flames reached tins containing 9,000 gallons of benzine, which were stored in the ship's hold aft. The 600,000 gallons of refined oil, stored in the forward and middle holds of the vessel were destroyed.

Mother of Eighteen Children.

"I am the mother of eighteen children and have the praise of doing more work than any young woman in my town," writes Mrs. C. J. Martin Boone Mill, Va. "I suffered for five years with stomach trouble and could not eat as much as a biscuit without suffering. I have taken three bottles of Chamberlain's Tablets and am now a well woman and weigh 168 pounds. I can eat anything I want to and as much as I want and feel better than at any time in years. I refer to any one in Boone Mill or vicinity and they will vouch for what I say." Chamberlain's Tablets are for sale by all dealers.

The last remaining barrier at the Pacific end of the Panama Canal was blown up by dynamite Saturday morning. It was an intensely interesting spectacle. Dredges passed last night through the opening; and in a few days the last vestige of the barrier will be removed, establishing a practically complete channel at the Pacific end. The dredges will begin on September 2 to remove the last barrier of the Atlantic channel. When this work is accomplished ships may navigate to the locks at both ends.

SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years' Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

Mt. Airy, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell.

I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good.

I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together.

My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it."

Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble, such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlastingly tired feeling?

If so, let us urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you, just as it has a million other women in the past half century.

Begin taking Cardui to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.
